Information on Japan for EU Companies

When seeking to do business abroad, it is essential to first get to know the country that you are targeting. Awareness about Japan's politics, economics and social environment is a considerable asset. To help you improve your knowledge about Japan, and in accordance with the project of the Directorate-General for Enterprise & Industry of the European Commission to develop a global platform providing EU businesses with relevant information about business with third countries, the EU-Japan Centre has created this online information portal for European companies seeking to break into the Japanese market. It aims to bring together and make
